A fantasy e-book

Lady Juliana of Bellemare's wedding is tomorrow. Every noblewoman wants to marry well, so why isn't she happy? Instead, Juliana longs for one good adventure before her life becomes consumed by her new role as a wife. She'd trade her soul to see the castles of enemy kings or dance by the fiery light of a dragon's breath.

Merrick, immortal King of the Unblessed, ruler of necessary evil, has watched Juliana for years. Even with all his powers, Merrick doesn't understand why a mere mortal enchants him so. However, hearing her plea gives him all the opening he needs. He can offer her an adventure. An adventure that takes far from her overprotective fiancé and brothers. An adventure that will lead her straight into his bed.

An exciting, original fantasy! Ms. Pillow weaves an epic tale that takes readers along for the adventure of an immortal lifetime. In Merrick, the author delivers a flawed, yet relatable, hero. Well-developed secondary players round out a fascinating cast of characters, especially Juliana's brothers. The Realm Immortal series kicks off to an unforgettable start. Readers will beg for more!
